EMERGENCY HOUSING VOUCHERS

UPDATE: CDC is now accepting EHV referrals for the recently homeless eligibility category ONLY

As of Monday, July 25, 2022 the Community Development Commission (CDC) of Mendocino County is ONLY accepting Emergency Housing Voucher (EHV) referrals for individuals and families who meet the definition of the recently homeless EHV eligibility category defined below.

Any EHV referrals submitted prior to this date will continue to remain on the EHV waiting list and further processed for eligibility when their name reaches the top of the list.

RECENTLY HOMELES DEFINED

Individuals and families who have previously been classified as homeless by an authorized Homeless Service Provider, but;

- are not currently homeless as a result of
  - homeless assistance (financial assistance or services),
  - temporary rental assistance, or
  - some type of other assistance, and
- where the Homeless Service Provider determines the loss of such assistance would result in a return to homelessness, or the family having a high risk of housing instability.

I BELIEVE I MAY QUALIFY; HOW DO I APPLY?

All applications for the EHV program must be referred to CDC directly from a participating Homeless Service Provider.

Please refer to the column on the left, which includes the contact information for participating Homeless Service Providers. The Service Provider will determine if an individual or a family meet the recently homeless definition, then make the direct referral to CDC. Once CDC receives the referral, applicants will be placed on the EHV waiting list, and further processed for eligibility when their name reaches the top of the list.

HOUSING SEARCH AND SUPPORT SERVICES

CDC has devoted funds for EHV applicants for various types of housing search assistance. The following may be available to applicants participating in the EHV program:

- Housing Search Assistance
- Security deposit assistance
- Streamlined leasing process
- Rental application fees
- Higher Payments Standards for the EHV program

LANDLORD OUTREACH AND INCENTIVES

The EHV program is designed to promote a community wide commitment to the goal of ending homelessness. Because the success of the EHV program depends on the availability of units in the private market, landlords play a pivotal role in the success of the EHV program.

CDC has devoted funds for EHV applicants for various landlord incentives and support. Additional information will be forthcoming outlining the specific landlord incentives and types of support services that will be associated with the Emergency Housing Vouchers.

If you are a landlord and have questions regarding the EHV program, or would like to list your vacancy with our agency please contact us, we look forward to hearing from you!

Persons requiring an accommodation due to a disability may request such an accommodation at any time during this process.
